

ORN400: Finding Your Path IV

Course Overview

Seniors begin their school year with a course specifically targeted to their unique concerns. This 10-hour orientation course is unique for each student, as school counselors, advisors, and other staff guide students through an in-depth exploration of their interests, abilities, and skills. Students explore their education and career interests, define goals, and create a path through high school that will get them there. In addition, this course serves as a "home base" where students and school counselors can address topics that are critical to ensuring success in high school and beyond.
