If K12 is notified of missing or damaged item(s) after 30 days of receipt of shipment and/or the item(s) missing or damaged is not the fault of K12 or K12 vendor error, customer will be sent a replacement and charged a replacement fee as well as the cost of shipping the replacement materials.

Full-time students may swap courses without incurring any additional costs. If a course swap is requested after the 30th day, it will be considered a course withdrawal, and a new course can be purchased for an enrolling term for a fee of one hundred dollars ($100) nonrefundable administration fee. Full-time students who have withdrawn from and added courses are responsible for purchasing any new materials required as a result of the course swap.

Part-time students must pay a one hundred dollar ($100) nonrefundable administration fee for each swapped course in addition to any course cost differential via credit card before the student can be provided access to the added course. (E.g. if a part-time student swaps a $400 course for a $475 course, she must pay the $100 non-refundable administration fee plus the $75 course cost differential via credit card before being able to access the new course material.)
