IV. Training/Updates

a. Board President Update

NA

b. Treasurer Update

Discussion: David Harp was not able to attend the meeting today, but his statement is included in the Board Packet. Sheryl Tatum also mentioned that James Smith and Sheryl Tatum will need to meet David Harp at the bank to get him added to the ISOK account.

c. Head of School/Principal Update

Discussion: ISOK is up for renewal on July 1st. Part of the April meeting will include future goals for 3 years and 5 years down the road. Sheryl Tatum asked the board to be thinking about their vision for the school and be prepared to discuss during the April meeting.

The board would like to meet at the new office for the April meeting. They enjoyed the teacher presentation that Deanna Duerson did the last time they met at the ISOK office. They would like another teacher to present at the April board meeting. Veronica McGowan brought up the idea of having ISOK classified as an Alternative School. Sheryl Tatum said that Bill Hickman is looking into it for us. Sheryl Tatum contacted the SDE and was told that schools can no longer be classified as alternative schools, but will continue to look into it.
