

Packing List/Info

DC Trip: Students & Adults

Remember to pack carefully and don't forget your rain poncho!

Farmer's Almanac info for mid-October for the DC area:

Average temperature for OCTOBER 2015: temperature 59° (3° above avg.); Oct 8-13: Rain, then sunny, cool; Oct 14-19: Rainy periods, mild. We often find the weather can vary with the scenarios above. ☺

Required:

- 4-5 sets of clothing, including extra socks and undergarments
- Note: Day 1 travel – we plan to get to the 4H Center to provide time to freshen up/change before dinner and evening sights.
- Appropriate (modest) attire to represent the school well while we are out and about visiting memorials, etc. (Example – nice jeans are appropriate, but not sweat pants)
- Pajamas
- Toiletries (hairbrush, toothbrush, toothpaste, shampoo, soap, deodorant, etc!)
- Good walking shoes + a back-up pair
- Rain poncho
- Hoodie or jacket for chilly days/nights
- Tote or back pack (to carry your belongings such as water bottle, poncho) – hope to provide this for participants!
- Spending money – 4 meals ($40 - $50)
- Water bottle
- Adults: Photo ID – due to security at some buildings, adults MUST have a photo ID to enter.
- All belongings should be clearly labeled with your name

Suggested:

- Spending money for souvenirs
- Small travel pillow
- Small blanket/throw for travel on the bus
- Travel-size hand sanitizer
- Lip balm
- Dry non-messy snacks – for bus travel only. Outside snacks are not permitted at the 4H Center.
- Camera – disposables are encouraged, but label them with the student's name
- Sun glasses
- Paper (Notebook), Pens or Pencils

Permitted:

- Candy, gum – for bus travel
- Cell phones (and chargers) are permitted, but students must take responsibility for lost or damaged items. OHVA is not responsible for the care of these items. Phones must be used with respect and care, and must not distract from students listening for instructions from the Go Student Trips guide or OHVA staff.
- Magazines, books, travel games (not electronic), cards

The travel may be long, and we understand the desire for electronic devices, but we also want students to use the time to connect with each other. We can discuss this option in our family/student meetings. We should be able to view a DVD or two on the bus together!
