

Solving the Teacher Shortage

with Stride Learning Solutions

As of January 2022, 44% of schools reported at least one teaching vacancy.*

For every open position, there have only been 0.57 new hires in 2021–2022.

80%

of teachers report unfilled job openings are creating more work for them.*

74%

of teachers report they've had to fill in for colleagues due to staffing shortages.*

90%

of teachers
report feeling burned out.*

Teacher vacancies affected a prominent Missouri school district that faced a forecast shortage of about 50 educators across core and foreign language subjects. By working with their partner, Stride Learning Solutions, they now have a personalized solution to fill the teacher gaps for this upcoming school year!
